

HWB

- Create a poster about one of the following—Utilitarianism, Kantian ethics, Egoism, Religious Authority/Divine Command.
- Create a graph showing the emotions of one of the characters throughout the film. Choose from—Javert, Valjean, Fantine, Eponine, Marius
- Perform a speech explaining which of the moral stances you think is most important to society and why.

Get creative

- Design a poster detailing one of the moral stances you have studied.
- Make a board game about the different moral stances you have studied.
- Make a 3D model of a scene from the film.
- Make a news report film about the revolution.

Literacy

- Write a synopsis of Les Misérables
- Write a character analysis of your favourite character, include evaluation of decisions they make.
- Write a 5-10 question quiz about moral stances eg—utilitarianism, Kantianism
- Research a modern day utilitarian and write a fact file about them and their beliefs.
- 'Lying is always wrong' Do you agree with this statement? Use examples from the film to explain your viewpoint. 500 words.
- 'People cannot truly change' Do you agree with this statement? examples from the film to explain your viewpoint. 500 words.
-

S3 Les Misérables Homework sheet

1 task from each box to be completed over 3 homework hand in dates. You choose which one you hand in each time.

Write the dates in you planner or add to your calendar in your phone.